

Indigenous Niagara Heritage and Legacy Tour

Enrich your knowledge of Indigenous culture and history with our new guided tour experience, the Indigenous Niagara Heritage and Legacy Tour. Learn first-hand about authentic Indigenous culture and how members of the Indigenous community have played significant and pivotal roles in Niagara and Canada's story, in both a historical and modern context.

Immerse yourself in Indigenous history and teachings with a new guided tour offering that explores the significance of treaties and the pivotal contribution made by First Nation Allies in the War of 1812. Then discover the new must-see Niagara Parks Power Station and Tunnel to explore the connections between Niagara Falls and the Indigenous communities who have called these lands home for thousands of years.

This authentic tour includes time spent with Indigenous guides and subject matter experts at the Landscape of Nations Memorial, as well as a guided tour of the new Niagara Parks Power Station and Tunnel, concluding with an Indigenous-themed lunch at Table Rock House Restaurant.

Groups can choose from a variety of add-ons, each providing an intersectional lens to the Indigenous Niagara Heritage and Legacy Tour, such as a visit to the Laura Secord Homestead to learn more about the history-defining connections between this heroic woman and Indigenous peoples.
